Discuss City of Katy Strategic Guide – 2014 Vision Statement

City Administrator Byron Hebert gave a brief recap of the work he had done with staff and The Management Connection, Inc., on moving forward with proposed City of Katy Strategic Guide – 2014 Vision Statement. He explained the first challenge was to create a Vision Statement for the City. After receiving ideas from staff, he had Kayce Reina, City's Marketing and Tourism Specialist; along with Councilmember Dowdle prepare a final draft for consideration. Hebert commented on several potential words or phrases to describe the best image of the City, including tradition, fiscal strength for future generations, personal services, the best customer service to help citizens and core values. He spoke of moving towards management training for all city departments, not just administration and believes if the City hires the right people and offers the right training tools; it will improve the management and strengths for the City. He referenced the goals, objectives and attributes of the City and believes the westward annexation of property will assist with the economic environment and encourage good growth. He commented on future projects and the possibility of using Hotel Occupancy Tax Funds to accomplish these projects.

Adjourn

The Mayor adjourned the meeting at 6:21 p.m.
